The ladies of the German Lutheran church are making most elaborate preparations for a fair, which is to be held at the United opera hall from 5 p. m. to 12 m. of October. They wish everyone to distinctly understand that the proceeds of this fair are exclusively for the benefit of their church and for no other purpose. They strive to pay off the debt still resting on their little church and modest mansion situated at the corner of South Emporia and Douglas avenues, and to support their pastor somewhat more liberally than it could be done heretofore. Special exertions are being made to render this exhibition still more attractive and interesting than the preceding ones. Artistic articles of fancy work will be exhibited, among them a most gorgeous plush quilt. Quite a number of beautiful presents have been received from friends and prominent business houses of the city which will afford much pleasure to look at, but will not be sold. The fair is in possession by drawing. Chances will also be given to the political parties to present their candidates with either a solid gold watch or a gold headed cane or umbrella.
The hall will be open at 7 o'clock p. m. from Monday to Saturday. Nightly musical entertainments will be given and various kinds of refreshments will be served at usual prices. Admission fee is 10 cents.
The ladies most cordially invite all American and German ladies to patronize their undertaking and help them to make it a grand success. They wish to recommend their church, being the first and as yet only German Lutheran in this city, to the kind and liberal aid of all good and fair-minded citizens, desirous to see the Christian cause prospering as well as any other, and offer their sincere thanks to all who have assisted them so far substantially to this end. 115-11

RECORD BOOK.
County Superintendent Pence's classification register is the most complete thing of the kind ever published. John McDonald, editor of the Western School Journal, writes: "I examined Superintendent Pence's Classification Register, and was much pleased with it. A number of superintendents pronounce it superior to any other now before the public, and it will be of great value to all superintendents. It is a very good thing to have in our county schools. There is no reason why Kansas money should be going to distant cities when we have a better article in our own state. Address: P. H. MURDOCK, Manager EAGLE."
